

The suit of Pentacles is practical, embodied and tries to see the best in any situation.

This crib-sheet is looking at each card with a “pentacle” mind.

Ideally look at each card and see where I got the inspiration from. Because as I write this I am looking at the card and experiencing the best advice within it.

Ace wands: Seize the day, grab the baton, yes- grasp this opportunity.

2 Wands: You stand there, in a safe place, with so much potential. Do it! Go on- climb over the wall and explore all that potential.

3 Wands: I can feel the cool breeze, almost see the amazing view. Now is the time to pause, appreciate all you have achieved (even if it was only walking up the hill!)

4 Wands: I am creating a beautiful space to celebrate. Because we need to enjoy the journey- and celebrate all the little wins along the way.

5 Wands: I am not quite sure how I am going to bring this together right now- but at least I am trying!

6 wands: Maybe if I dress confidently, and act confidently I will finally start to feel confident!

7 wands: I am comfortable with who I am, and where I am. I am not going to start justifying that with anyone.

8 wands: OK. It seems the plans I started are all in motion right now- and it's out of my hands. I'm going to have to trust the process on this one.

9 wands: I know I'm exhausted, and over prepared. I'm determined to take a rest, even if I still feel unsafe- because I know I need to rest.

10 wands: I know I'm doing too much, and am probably making poor decisions because I am not taking the time to see where I am going.

Or: the physical act of moving- home, office, decluttering.

Ace of cups: I am meeting my own emotional needs first- because I know you can't pour from an empty cup.

2 cups: I am spending time with someone who is, and allows me to be, emotionally honest. Because time with the right person is magical.

3 cups: I offer help to my loved ones, and I allow myself to be helped as well. Because that is how to create a strong relationship.

4 cups: I am waiting until I feel emotionally connected and inspired, instead of just accepting what is easy or first offered to me.

5 cups: I know it is OK to be sad, but I don't let that distract me from what is good in my life.

6 cups: I'm only too aware how easy it is to get lost in my memories, trying to stay focused on the present moment.

7 cups: My heart is full of possibilities- the trick is to find the best one to focus on.

8 cups: I need to move away from this issue to be able to have a more helpful perspective.

9 cups: I am going to live my life as if I have everything I desire (the full 10 cups) because that is a powerful form of practical magic.

10 cups:

Ace swords: The single upright sword is me expressing my truth, without ambiguity.

2 swords: I have put the blindfold on, and calmed my mind, to be better able to hear myself.

3 swords: I am speaking my emotional truth, because I need to let it go.

4 swords: I know I need to take a rest now. Not just any rest, but a mental break to calm my mind.

5 swords: I am angry, but I will not allow your words to hurt me.

6 swords: I have no real idea of where I am going- but I trust it will be OK.

7 swords: I'm prepared to take a risk, because I think the potential outcome is worth it.

8 swords: I don't believe I can do this; I need to be clear about what self-limiting beliefs (or other people's words) are holding me back.

9 swords: I have to do something to break this cycle of overthinking- even if its talking to a friend or writing a list.

10 swords: I am taking time to release my anxiety through my body- booking a massage, having a hug, taking a bath.

Ace pentacles: I really want this opportunity- even if it means leaving my comfort zone.

2 pentacles: I know I have a lot going on right now, but I will deal with far more effectively after a break.

3 pentacles: I am going to stay focused and create a stable, balanced foundation for myself.

4 pentacles: I know my own power is more than good enough, as long as I step away from the bustle of everyday life and remain totally focused on my intention and my boundaries.

5 of pentacles: It is tough right now, and I am struggling with not enough. But at least I am keeping going.

6 of pentacles: I need to take control at this point, and balance my resources carefully.

7 of pentacles: I'm going to pause, reflect, and make a considered decision about how best to move forward.

8 of pentacles: I just love it when I am totally focused on what I'm doing, learning as I go. Totally in the zone.

9 of pentacles: I am secure in myself, and my skillset. I understand money and work with it in a centred way with solid boundaries.

10 The wheel of fortune: I know life has its ups and downs; I can stay centred even in the midst of change.

14 Temperance: I trust that if I act in an intuitive way, and get the balance right, then all will be good.

15 Devil: I'm going to use humour to lighten the mood!

16 Tower: I know it feels scary, but whatever is left will be a solid foundation.

17 Star: I know I can manifest my wish, and I will work on my inner life, and outer life to make this happen.
